

COMMUNITY RELATIONS POLICY

Lunar Mining values the importance of strong relationships with the communities in which we operate. Nurturing of community relationships is a core element of our business's social responsibility. Through active community participation, we develop a long-term commitment and create positive energy built on mutual understanding, respect and trust.

In supporting the community, we will:

- Demonstrate Lunar Mining's Community Relations Policy to all employees and other stakeholders as appropriate;
- Recognise that each community is unique;
- Listen to community needs and expectations and seek regular feedback;
- Become an active member of the community through involvement in social, recreational, well being, charitable and cultural initiatives;
- Seek to continually improve our standards of community relations involvement; and
- Review and revise our Community Relations Policy to maintain their relevance.

By acting on this policy, we make a meaningful contribution and created positive energy within the communities in which we operate.

Signed:

Brad Comiskey
Director

Glenn Dickson
Director