

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Lunar Mining promotes open communication and transparency in all aspects of their business and recognise Occupation Health and Safety is an integral part of conducting business. We believe no business priority comes before safety.

Lunar Mining will, as far as practicable, provide a safe work environment for the health, safety and welfare of our employees, contractors, visitors and members of the public who may be affected by our work. We strive to continually improve our processes and manage change through effective communications, monitoring of activities, recognising opportunities and implementing changes when needed.

We are committed to:

- The health and safety of our employees and those whose health and safety may be affected by our employees, materials or equipment;
- Addressing our legislative obligations and requirements as a minimum standard;
- Actively participating in establishing leading practice Occupation Health and Safety standards on any site in partnership with our client to maintain required standard.

The Lunar Mining Management Team, following direction from the Lunar Mining Board of Directors:

- To create an environment where there are no barriers to involvement at any level;
- To establish health and safety targets and objectives;
- To monitor and review performance;
- To provide the resources to ensure Lunar Mining achieves industry leading safety standards.

We encourage all of our employees to be active in identifying hazards, to suggest controls to reduce the risks and in so create a safer work environment.

We accept responsibility for the provision of competent people who demonstrate an essential knowledge of Occupational Health and Safety.

We expect all employees to accept responsibility for their actions, to report unsafe acts and conditions, and to comply with Workplace Health and Safety Legislation, site policies, procedures, safe work instructions and all other site risk management instructions or processes.
