

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY

Lunar Mining is committed to Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO).

Lunar Mining believes that living up to that commitment, all who work with Lunar Mining will enjoy a satisfying workplace environment and that each person's access to available opportunities will be merit based.

Based upon demonstrated skills, qualifications and abilities, all applicants and employees can expect to be treated fairly in relation to recruitment, training, development and promotion.

Sexual harassment will not be tolerated. Any instance of sexual harassment will be investigated promptly and confidentially. Sexual harassment is unlawful.

Any form of unlawful discrimination will not be tolerated. Lunar Mining will not treat any person less favorably than another person based on their sex, race, age, marital status, pregnancy, family responsibilities, disability/impairment, religion, political beliefs, lawful union activity or sexual orientation.

All EEO issues referred to Lunar Mining will be investigated and resolved in a timely fashion, with an emphasis to maintain the rights, dignity and respect of all parties concerned.

Signed:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Brad Comiskey".

Brad Comiskey
Director

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Glenn Dickson".

Glenn Dickson
Director